4. In the Matter of City of Hanford; FPPC No. 22/564.

Chief of Enforcement Kendall L.D. Bonebrake flagged a typographical error in the stipulation on page 13 regarding a comparable case “In the Matter of City of Garden Grove and Scott Stiles” noting a cost of $11,526. The correct cost is $1,526. Commissioner Brandt stated he is focused on the facts and the style, timing, and tenor when it comes to these types of cases. Commissioner Wilson stated it would be a different case if there was a balanced analysis of facts on both sides as opposed to it being one-sided advocating yes or no. Chair Silver stated there are clear regulations to consider, but it is a difficult and complex analysis. To assist in conducting this analysis, the FPPC now posts copies of the government communications at issue in advice letters and enforcement matters. Chair Silver recommended for any public attorneys advising on this topic to reach out to the FPPC for advice on what is permissible under the law.
