DIVISION: AUDITS & ASSISTANCE DIVISION

SALARY: $5,934 - $7,803

FINAL FILING DATE: July 13, 2022

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

PERFORM AUDITS INDEPENDENTLY AND AS A TEAM MEMBER ON AUDITS AND PROJECTS – Independently or as a member of a team of auditors, performs mandatory and discretionary audits of the books, records, statements, and reports of candidates, committees and other entities. The mandatory audits include candidates for Controller, members of the Board of Equalization, local office, Board Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System and committees supporting or opposing such candidates. Determine an effective scope of examination, develop, analyze, and evaluate facts, draw accurate and proper technical conclusions concerning violations of the Political Reform Act and sufficiency of evidence. Prepare detailed audit working papers and reports and conduct interviews. Draft and serve subpoenas determined to be necessary to obtain relevant evidence. Appear as a witness at legal and administrative proceedings. These audits have inherent sensitivity. Performing the field audits can require overnight travel throughout the State working in a variety of work environments.

PERFORM INVESTIGATIONS – Perform investigations of sensitive cases of suspected violations of the Political Reform Act involving accounting problems and other issues, with wide discretion and independence of action. Investigations include, but are not limited to: embezzlement of campaign funds; personal use of campaign funds; falsification of documents to conceal misuse of funds and violations of the Act; verification of campaign filings and requirements; campaign contribution laundering violations; campaign contribution and voluntary expenditure limit violations; cases where there is strong suspicion of intentional misconduct; financial transactions; circumstantial evidence with conflicting testimony; and sensitive cases regarding high level State and local officials. Investigation duties include obtaining, analyzing, and evaluating evidence, documenting findings in investigation reports and detailed accounting working papers, conducting interviews of individuals who may have violated or have knowledge of violations of the Political Reform Act, drafting and serving subpoenas to obtain evidence, working in conjunction with Federal, State, and local law enforcement agencies, and appearing as a witness at legal and administrative proceedings. Performing the investigations sometimes requires overnight travel throughout the State working irregular work hours in a variety of environments.

AUDIT IDENTIFICATION AND SELECTION – Identify candidates, committees and other entities subject to random audit pursuant to the Political Reform Act and conduct the audit selections.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS – This position may be eligible for telework. The amount of telework is at the discretion of the Department and based on Fair Political Practices Commission's current telework policy.
