

1 Amend 2 Cal. Code Regs., Section 18426.1 to read:

2 § 18426.1. Assistant Treasurer: Duties and Liability.

3 Pursuant to Government Code section 84100, every recipient committee shall have a 4 treasurer, and may designate, on the committee's statement of organization, one assistant 5 treasurer. The assistant treasurer may sign and verify campaign statement(s) on behalf of the 6 committee which ~~he or she~~ the assistant treasurer has used reasonable diligence to prepare and 7 review, and signs to that effect under penalty of perjury as required by Government Code section
8 81004. With respect to statements signed by the assistant treasurer, the treasurer and assistant
9 treasurer shall be jointly and severally liable for any violations for which the Political Reform 10 Act would otherwise hold the treasurer liable. The assistant treasurer shall assume the duties and 11 responsibilities of the treasurer as set forth in the Political Reform Act and Commission 12 regulations (including Title 2, California Code of Regulations sections 18401 and 18427) in the 13 event of a temporary vacancy in the office or in the event the treasurer is unavailable. Consistent 14 with Section 84100(a), a committee may not accept a contribution or make an expenditure at a 15 time when the office of treasurer is vacant.
