

1 Amend 2 Cal. Code Regs., Section 18438.6 to read:

2 § 18438.6. Solicitation, Direction, and Receipt of Contributions Under Government Code

3 Section 84308.

4 (a) A person “makes” and an officer “accepts” or “receives” a contribution only if the
5 contribution is for the officer's campaign or controlled committee, including, but not limited to:

6 (1) Campaign committees;

7 (2) Ballot measure committees;

8 (3) Legal defense funds;

9 (4) Officeholder Controlled Committees formed pursuant to Section 85316(b) and 10 Regulation 18531.62; and

11 (5) Recall committees.

12 (6) State or county central committees.

13 (b) An officer “solicits” a contribution only if the officer knows or has reason to know
14 that the person being solicited for a contribution is a party or agent of a party, or is a participant
15 or agent of a participant, and:

16 (1) The officer requests a contribution for any campaign or committee, including those 17 not controlled by the officer;

18 (2) The agent of the officer, with the officer's knowledge, requests a contribution for the 19 officer's campaign or controlled committee; or

20 (3) The agent of the officer, at the direction of the officer, requests a contribution for any 21 other campaign or committee.

22 (c) An officer “directs” a contribution only if the officer solicits a person for a
23 contribution to a campaign or committee and:

1 (1) The officer knows or has reason to know the person is a party, participant, or agent of
2 a party or participant; and

3 (2) The person makes the contribution to the campaign or committee.

4 (d) Notwithstanding subsections (b) and (c), an officer does not solicit or direct a
5 contribution by making a request in a mass mailing sent to members of the public, to a public
6 gathering, or published in a newspaper, on radio or TV, or in any other mass media.

7 An officer does not “solicit” or “direct” a contribution solely because the officer's name is 8 printed with other names on stationery or a letterhead used to request contributions.
