Who Files

This form is used to report security expenses authorized by Government Code section 89517.5, when a candidate or elected officer faces a threat or potential threat to their safety, the safety of their family, or the safety of their staff. Under Section 89517.5, campaign funds can be used by a committee to pay, or reimburse the state, for the reasonable costs of installing a home or office electronic security system, providing personal security, or any other tangible item related to security for a candidate, elected officer, or the immediate family or staff of a candidate or elected officer. Security expenses cannot include payments to a relative within the third degree of consanguinity of a candidate or elected officer, the candidate's or elected officer's spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, nephew, niece, aunt, uncle, or first cousin, or the spouse of any such person, or payments for a firearm.

Effective January 1, 2026, a candidate or elected officer may expend campaign funds pursuant to Section 89517.5 without any monetary cap until January 1, 2029. Beginning January 1, 2029, the maximum amount that can be spent with campaign funds or reimbursed to the state for security expenses is $10,000 per calendar year. This limit is a lifetime maximum and applies regardless of the number of offices the whether the person is a candidate or elected officer seeks or holds. for multiple offices.

The candidate or elected officer should maintain detailed accounts, records, bills, and receipts relating to this security expenditure or reimbursement as part of the recordkeeping requirements in Section 84104. This includes records providing evidence of the threat or potential threat to safety that the expenditure was made for.

When to File

The report of security expenses is filed at the same time as the campaign statement reporting the expenditure.
